

The LetGoDo Centre is a privately funded project to address Social and Humanitarian Issues. It brings together like minded individuals, collective individuals, organisations and businesses, Who Care about People. Forming a comprehensive range of knowledge and expertise, available to anyone who needs help.

This information will be brought to the public arena in the form of Free Public Forums. Issues such as Domestic Violence, Ageing, Youth, Women, Child, Men abuse, migrant issues, Health, Loneliness, Love, Family, Relationships, and Education, presented by individuals and groups, who volunteer their services for the benefit of the community.

The LetGoDo Centre will also be open to the general public at times. Please register your interest, to be kept informed, of what, volunteers, and consultants, in their various capacities, provide free, general information on a range of issues and counseling on various personal matters.

The LetGoDo Centre acts as the Gateway, harnessing the knowledge, and expertise of our members to provide practical and moral support to the individual, which flows onto the Family, the Community & Society.

We currently, fund Free Seniors Morning Tea to address issues of Ageing, Loneliness and Health and Career advise to students.

With your help and participation, we will be able to help more people over a very wide range of expanding issues. All presenters and supporters are on a volunteer basis. The rewards come from knowing you have connected and helped a fellow human being.

The LetGoDo Centre's Mission Statement is summed up as:

"Harnessing the Individual and Collective Individual's, knowledge and skills to address social issues and services to humanity for the Individual to Help Themselves "

With your help by participating in these Forums from both sides , you may be offering or seeking help, we would be able to address a lot of the problems, the world is facing. Thank You for Reading this and May the Spirit in Me Honour The Spirit in You

The LetGoDo Centre is privately funded by founder Tony Flurscheim. Through his respective businesses.
